

end of truncated track

Track points removed due to containment in region of home cluster.

Track points removed since corresponding triangles contain some but not all points of home cluster. Note that triangles are assumed to have infinite extent; here they have been shortened for better visualization.